8. Equipment

- The teams are recommended to bring a cell phone for emergency use. The cell phone must be stowed away and may only be used in an emergency
- The teams may not bring or use any type of GPS devices or night vision equipment (optical sights are allowed)
- Any items the team brings with them will have to be carried by the team all the way. It is our experience that shelter equipment, dry clothes and clothes for water passage is necessary for the team to complete the exercise
- During the entire exercise it is mandatory to use protective eyewear, and each participant must bring their own
- All participants must have Military ID card with them at all times.
- All items must – all together (exclusive food and water) – be carried in a Backpack/combat vest/Personal Load Carrying Equipment (PLCE) and weigh at least 10 kg. This will be inspected during the exercise

9. Language

- The language during the exercise will be Danish and English

10. Participants

- Two types of teams may enter
 1. 2-person team, if one person leaves, the team is out
 2. 6-person team, the team may lose one participant during the exercise and still complete
 3. Teams that leave the competition may in some cases switch over and participate as enemy forces
- Units from all branches of the Danish Home Guards may participate
- Units from all branches of Army, Air and Navy forces may participate
- Foreign units
 1. The foreign units must appoint a contact person to be in charge of communication with the Exercise Control Team
 2. The contact person agrees with the Exercise Control team on the number of teams entering
 3. The contact person is in charge of securing that all participants from the foreign unit have their insurance papers, travel papers and other relevant documentation in order prior to participation
- The Exercise Control Team has defined a maximum number of participants from each country. Allowing Germany a total of 60 participants in the traditional EX Blue Nail - not included posts and Enemy Forces.
